

What do we do?

- Create and deliver an award winning newspaper to homes and businesses free of charge
- Support local charities
- Bring local people together at events throughout the year
- Care for the environment in Westcombe Park and beyond

The Westcombe News

We keep all up to date on local issues and events through the Westcombe News:

- 4,000 copies delivered free 10 times a year
- lively discussion of local (and wider) topics
- news on the local environment
- What's on in the area

Events

Events for young and old (and in between) throughout the year:

- Lively quiz nights
- Easter Egg Hunt
- Summer event
- MacMillan coffee morning and walk

Supporting local charities

We give the profits from our events to local charities including:

- The Mental Health Activity Trust
- Reachout at Mycenae House
- AFRIL

Caring for the environment

We aim to maintain and enhance the local environment and the Westcombe Park Conservation Area by:

- Reviewing and commenting on planning applications small and large
- helping to promote and protect green areas and trees
- working with other groups to campaign for the local environment

Get involved! Join the Westcombe Society to support our work. Or volunteer - we are looking for:

- Reporters
- Photographers
- Environmentalists
- Marketeers/Social networkers
- Cake makers
- Paper deliverers and many more...

An independent amenity group which aims to forge links within the community to make Westcombe Park a better place for all who live and work here.
